Rural Resident Dies Of Self-Inflicted Wound

A Dedeaux community resident died Sunday, February 16, of a gunshot wound. Sheriff Sylvan Ladner said Edward L. Ladner, 36, died of a wound which an inquest jury ruled was self-inflicted.

The shooting, Sheriff Ladner said, occurred in a wooded area about 300 feet from a house and about one mile from the J. P. Peterson residence where Ladner resided.

The sheriff said Ladner was struck under the left side of the neck by a blast from a 12-gauge automatic shotgun about 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Ladner left his residence, the sheriff added, after saying he was going bird hunting.

The body was found by Werling Ladner who went to investigate after hearing the shotgun blast, the sheriff reported.

Members of the jury were Ernest Netto, Emmet Niolet, J. W. Favre, Vernon Cuevas, Aaron Malley and McCoy Peterson. Sheriff Ladner was assisted in his investigation by Chief Deputy Edo Depreo, Deputies James Ladner and Raoul Telhader.

Funeral services were held at 3 p.m. Tuesday at Dedeaux Catholic Church with interment in Standard Hill Cemetery.

SPECIAL JAYCEE MEETING IN FAVOR OF BOND ISSUE

Mayor John Scaffide, Engineer Joe Benson, Jaycee president Dr. Marion J. Wolfe Jr., and a number of Jaycee members working for passage of the Sewerage and Utilities bond issue attended a special meeting February 6 at the Jaycee home.

The purpose of the meeting was to inform the workers and organize plans for contact of every voter which is the responsibility of the Jaycees and Jayettes.

President Wolfe stated the Jaycees and Jayettes, since backing this project December 19, have recognized it as being the most needed and largest single project for the development and growth of this area; and since community development is the Number One program of the Jaycees, these organizations will concentrate their efforts on passage of the bond issue ever at the sacrifice of other needed projects.

On the state and area level, Wolfe announced that members are preparing for the State Board of Directors meeting in Laurel, February 21 through February 23, at which time Bay St. Louis will attempt to secure the 1964 statewide Outstanding Young Farmer event.

A joint orientation program by Bay St. Louis and Gulfport was conducted Monday for the Long Beach Jaycees. Speakers on the program were Charles Carter, Tom Lewis and Lee Choppin.

TWO MEETINGS TO EXPLAIN CITY BOND PROJECT

Two important meetings designed to give vital information concerning the proposed Sewerage, water and gas system improvement program planned for Bay St. Louis will be held this week-end.

The first will be held at Valena C. Jones High School auditorium, Sunday, February 23, at 2:30 p.m. The second will be at Bay High Auditorium, Monday, February 24, at 7:30 p.m.

Every citizen of this community is invited to attend these most important meetings, and know the facts concerning the proposed bond issue.

Mayor John Scaffide of Bay St. Louis said the proposed sewerage, water and gas system improvement program is necessary for the city's growth and development and comes "at a most opportune time."

He was discussing the proposal by the recently-formed Citizens For Progress Committee for a $3 million improvement of the city's sewerage and water systems and the city-owned natural gas system.

Mayor Scaffide noted the timeliness of the project as coming just when the city's population is expected to increase due to the Mississippi Test Operations site in Hancock County.

The Mayor said he has been working on this project for many years and that the city cannot go any longer without an improvement in the present sewerage system and modernization of its water and gas systems.

METHODIST CHURCH ENJOYED THREEFOLD PROGRAM SUNDAY

The Main Street Methodist Church enjoyed a very successful day last Sunday in its threefold program. The objectives were to set a new record in Sunday School, secure subscriptions for the new parsonage, and enjoy a fellowship dinner at the noon hour.

Sunday School attendance was 156 breaking the old record of 152 set October 13, 1963. Over $6300.00 was received in pledges and cash for the new parsonage. $2011.00 of this amount was received in cash. Nearly $11,000.00 of this amount has been received within the present Conference year which began June 1, 1963. This gives a total in cash and pledges in excess of $17,000.00 toward a 30,000 program. Each year $3,000.00 is set aside in the budget for this purpose. This will give a grand total of $20,000.00 by June 1, 1965.

The day's activities were climaxed with approximately 130 to 140 enjoying a fellowship dinner following the worship service, at which time the results of the campaign were announced.

Occupancy of the new parsonage is expected within two or three weeks.

County Asking Compensation For Roads In MTO Area

GENERAL MEMBERSHIP MEETING - CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The General Membership Pilot meeting for 1964 was held Monday evening, February 17, in the Agricultural Building.

Despite inclement weather, a representative group of members and prospective members attended.

Letters which had been sent by Powell Glass, Jr., president of the Chamber, which contained thought provoking questions to stimulate activity of the general membership, proved to have scored in arousing interest. A number of suggestions came from those present, some of which will be adopted by the Board as policy. Of particular interest is the institution of bi-monthly meetings for general membership. Dates and locations of such meetings will be announced preceding each meeting.

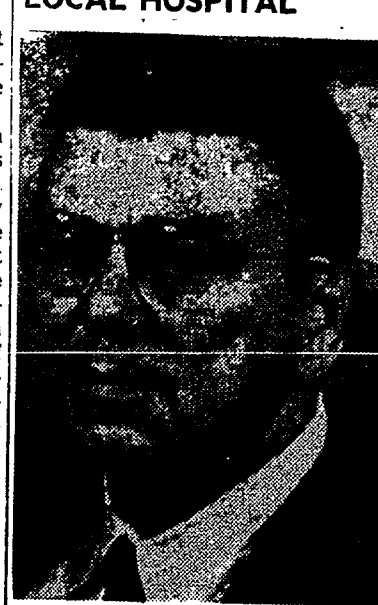

A potential working budget for the Chamber, drawn up and presented by Jos. Marochino, was approved. An important factor in furthering the functions of the Chamber to the benefit of the county, was an accord to increase advertising investments.

Warren Carver, Membership Chairman served refreshments during informal session preceding and following the meeting.

A directory of businesses in Hancock County will be issued shortly and anyone who wants to be listed is asked to contact the Chamber office as early as possible, as only paid up memberships will be included in the directory.

Membership dues are $17.50 plus one listing in the directory, and $2.50 for each additional listing.

Army Engineers Representing Mississippi Test Operations Asked the Hancock County Board of Supervisors Monday for 30 days in which to study a proposal that the federal government pay approximately $1,280,000 for county roads in the rocket test facility.

Board president, R. G. Hubbard Jr., said the conference in Bay St. Louis "didn't arrive at any more settlement than the last meeting", with Corps of Engineers representatives on Feb. 10.

Hubbard said the county furnished Army engineers with "all the data requested" on the mileage, location and valuation of county roads in the test site but, he said, "supervisors were told 'they had no authority to pay us'."

Supervisors divided on the question of whether to allow the Corps of Engineers until March 1, to give a definite answer, to the county's demand for payment for the roads, Hubbard said.

He noted an order adopted in January gives the board authority to close the test site roads if necessary, but said the board will probably "wait and see" what develops by March 9.

Hancock County is seeking payment for hard-surfaced, gravel and dirt roads in the huge test site as compensation for loss of assessed valuation and to finance development of roads elsewhere in the county where former residents of the test area have relocated.

Some roads in the test site were closed by supervisors during a brief dispute in January. The board said heavy construction machinery was damaging the roads and the county would like to convey them to the federal government for adequate compensation.

In other business Monday, the board met with planning engineer Louis Bisso and set March 17 for a public hearing on adoption of proposed regulation governing subdivision development.

The hearing will be held at 7 p.m. in the courthouse and Hubbard said, will center on proposals to require subdivision developers to construct adequate roads, drainage and other facilities before plans are accepted by the board.

Bids will also be received March 17 on a state aid road project in district three in the northern part of the county.

PROPERTY OWNER AWARDED $31,625 IN LAND MATTER

A petit jury at Biloxi Monday night returned a verdict awarding a woman $31,625 for her property in the Gainesville community.

The verdict was in favor of Malissa Rester Jones and was compensation for the taking of 2.90 acres of land containing a residence and some fishing cabins.

Another land case was started this morning and it involves a tract of 1.72 acres, owned by Lloyd Jones, and also located in the Gainesville community area.

The cases are being heard before Chief Judge William Harold Cox and involve lands acquired by the United States for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's Mississippi Test Operations. This facility will be used to test-fire Saturn rockets being built at the Michoud plant in New Orleans. These rockets will be used in the country's lunar space probes.

Hatcha Ketchum

Like old times this week, the weather was perfect and fresh salt water fishing was good. Caught a nice bunch of trout in Chefunct River in Louisiana last Saturday. Such spots as Leesville, Venice, Grand Isle, etc., all produced some salt water fishing. Haven't any reports on local fishing on this next week.

Played golf in Baton Rouge with well known D. R. Paxton. He is a beginner at golf, but can give a tough game. He says he can't beat the ball just won't cooperate. Keep trying D. R.

The fer-de-lance is a venomous viper, may reach seven in length. Personally I will him plenty of room.

Regarding golf, there are numerous golf courses in Baton Rouge and what is most amazing, there are 3 public courses with fees at 90 cent and one dollar and you can play all day. Some 9 holes and some 18 holes. The fees are never really crowded. It is most unusual to see old boys and girls of all ages playing golf. Some of the boys 12 years and up. Who knows if these in the next few years may be Arnold Palmer, Tiger Jones, etc. A couple of public golf courses would be an added to our future citizens on the Coast.

Any golfer's ambition is to make a hole in one. I've played years and only come close. By Wilkins' ambition after playing about 1 year was to sink a 30 putt. Last Wednesday he accomplished that feat, only it was a footer. Can't tell what happened.

Proof of catches of large red snappers at Venice, a picture in Times-Picayune of Sunday showed several ice boxes filled with snappers as far as Wyoming. Those who like to watch the snappers, they are really biting in territory now. Plenty of boats available and the fish are available. Go on that trip you have dreamed of.

Andy Martinovich, a good in general had a ball in king of the Bay St. Louis. About time you catch your fishing Doc. Take he you dad, the kids will love soft crabs. Economical and of fun catching them.

Hunters have been reminded by the State Game and Fish Commission that the quail and rabbit seasons close the end of February.

To show the value of scouting in article from Texas says that the inmates of the Gorce Unit for Women of the State Prison at Huntsville will sponsor a troop of Boy Scouts.

Another item states that F. M. Porch and Lord H. Longdorf will be honored for their 50-year scouting service careers in the Louisiana Area Council, Boy Scouts of America.

According to our way of thinking that's a long time. They have accomplished a pleasure and have evidently provided plenty of pleasure for lots of boys who have been to the Scouts. Both Longdorf and Porch are former professional scouts and served as executives.

Crayfish time is about at hand. Louisiana has plenty of crayfishing places and especially up the high way to Baton Rouge at the Bonnet Carré Spillway all the way to La Place. Crayfish are quite a delicacy when boiled and the heads can be stuffed making a crayfish bisque. Crayfish tails when boiled resemble boiled shrimp. Crayfish in season can be bought along highway 90 in the Gentilly area. Give them a try. They are boiled the same as crabs and shrimp.

According to T. V. the argument between Clay and Liston looks like the next world's championship heavyweight bout will be a comedy instead of a fight. Both men are confident of winning in short order.

The saying is the big man is the big mouth. The fight will be shown at the Municipal Auditorium in New Orleans on Tuesday, Feb. 25.

While fishing last week I caught a clam on the fly rod. The under water bait went to the bottom, a thug was felt and on retrieving I landed a clam. Think that's the first time a clam was caught on a fly rod.

1964 FEED FRAIN PROGRAM OFFERS ADVANCE PAYMENT

Growers who take part in the 1964 feed grain program may receive a part of the diversion payment in advance, Paul E. Bounds, Chairman of the Hancock Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee, has announced. As last year, the program will be available for corn, grain sorghum, and barley.

Up to one-half of the estimated total diversion payment may be made in advance, at the participant's request, at the time of signing up or as soon as possible after that time, the chairman explained. The rest of the diversion payment and all of the price support payment offered by the program will be made next fall.

The advance payment provision should be of substantial benefit to growers who can use extra ready cash during the spring planting season.

As in 1963, the 1964 feed grain program offers participants a payment for diversion of eligible cropland to approved conserving uses, and a price support payment on the normal production of the 1964 feed grain acreage. Participating growers will also qualify for price support loans or purchase agreements on their entire production from the feed grain acreage.

The acreage of corn, grain sorghum, and barley has been combined into one total feed grain base for each farm, and a producer may divert one or more of the feed grains in the total base.

His diversion payment will be made at the per-acre rate applying to the grain diverted. The minimum diversion under the program will be 20 percent of the farm's feed grain base acreage.

While participation in the 1964 feed grain program is voluntary, the price support payments and loans - as well as the diversion payments - will be available only to growers who carry out the program's provisions.

Signup for the program will continue at the Hancock ASCS County Office through March 27.

Social Security

We feel like we may reach more of your readers by answering some of the questions we frequently receive in the district office. The following questions are submitted:

Q. The postman brought me a letter about making social security reports for my maid. She tells me she doesn't want to be under social security. Is it all right for me not to report since she doesn't want to take part in it?

A. No, indeed! Social Security taxes are due and payable whenever any household employee is paid $50.00 in cash during any calendar quarter. There is no choice in the matter. You must make the report whether your employee wants you to or not.

Q. I'm confused about making reports of the wages I pay my maid. She only works one day a week. I thought social security was due just on "regular" workers.

A. Whether your maid just works a few days, one day a week, or even less, is not the test. The rule is that if you pay her $50.00 between January 1st and March 31st, or $50.00 in any other quarter of the year, the wage must be reported and tax paid.

Q. So, if a worker comes to your house only one day each week, you'll probably have to make a social security report for her if you pay her $4.00 a day. If she comes 2 days a week, you'll need to make the report even if she only makes $2.00 a day.

A. I take care of my employer's children in her home. She does not make a Social Security report for my wages. I am not ready to claim Social Security payments, but I want to be sure I get credit for my wages. Is there anything I can do?

A. Come to see us right away. Bring any evidence you have of your wages. We will investigate and see that you get credit for your work. Your employer will have to pay interest and a penalty for the failure to report your wages on time.

MISSISSIPPI POWER CO. AMONG OTHERS PROPOSING CONVERSION

A study of possible conversion of one of the U. S. government's nuclear reactors on the Savannah River to the generation of electric power has been proposed by a group of 12 southeastern electric companies, including Mississippi Power Company, Gulfport, A. J. Watson, Jr., president announced today.

Mr. Watson said that the objective of the study would be to determine whether commercial utilization of a reactor now scheduled to be withdrawn from plutonium production for atomic weapons at the Savannah River site in South Carolina would be feasible.

The power company official said that top executives of the utilities made a formal proposal to the Atomic Energy Commission that the investor-owned companies be permitted to undertake a study "to determine the technical and economic feasibility of converting and utilizing part of these facilities (at Aiken) for electric power production."

If undertaken, the study is expected to be completed by the end of this year, at an estimated cost of between $300,000 to $400,000.

OR BIT PATH: THE CROSS

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four equal reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

The entire message of America's astronauts has not yet been deciphered. Parts of it still lie locked within instruments, and most of it still is hidden in the infinity of space. But we are learning, and we might say that the astronauts are our teachers.

Many, many years ago there was another great Teacher, and His message is still being revealed through faith to the mind of mankind. His message is the path of the Cross... the path to eternal life.

But where do we find our instructions, our briefing? What instruments can we use to discover this message for ourselves? You will find it in your church this Sunday.

We all know now about Cape Canaveral, about tracking stations. We are discovering more about outer space.

We know too about the Church. Let us use it then as our guide, our booster, our thrust to Heaven.

Anent Colmer

William M. Colmer is rendering a customary useful and distinguished service to his constituents in the Mississippi Fifth Congressional District, including Pascagoula, as a member of the House of Representatives.

In the fight against the misadventures of the Johnson administration, Colmer is trying to ram through Congress.

This infamous proposal, discussed in an editorial in Tuesday's Eagle, is a carry-over from the Johnson regime. It is designed as a catch-all, especially in national elections, regardless of the merits of the proposal.

Conscious of our oath to uphold the Constitution of the United States, we, who have the honor to represent this most reprehensible district upon the Constitution of the United States, and who believe in the rights and privileges of the majority as well as the minority of citizens, hereby renew with renewed vigor our pledge to our constituents and all freedom-loving Americans to oppose this proposal, and we further urge every member of the House of Representatives, in the House of Representatives, and in the Senate where rules of procedure are more flexible, to join with us to this end.

Colmer is the Dean of the Mississippi delegation in the House. Throughout his long career he has worked hard and successfully for the people in his district. He has been especially interested in better harbors, industry, and defense installations.

His outstanding record of success was made possible by his long record in office. In Congress, Colmer is a great advantage. Colmer is best known to the powerful House Rules Committee, one of the most powerful committees in the House.

He served as Chairman of the Post-War Economic Policy Planning Committee that recommended a firm policy in dealing with Russia. He is a member of the National Forest Reservation Commission, serving with three members of the cabinet, two senators, and a second representative.

In 1962 he was selected by the American Good Government Society, a patriotic, non-partisan, educational organization, for its George Washington Day Award, the first Mississippian to honor.

"A man has to learn to be a representative," the great Democratic Speaker of the House of Representatives, Champ Clark, used to say. "A new Congressman must begin at the foot of the class and spell up. The best rule is for a district to select a man with at least fair capacity, industrious, honest, energetic, sober, and courageous, and keep him here so long as he discharges his duties faithfully and well."

Mississippi's Fifth District has long followed Champ Clark's advice and should continue doing so. Colmer needs any current assistance that his constituents want him to continue in office, such should be forthcoming now, and persuasively. We hope and believe that will happen.

On Roads

The Hancock County board of supervisors and U. S. Corps of Engineers moved a step closer toward agreement Monday on payment for county roads in the Mississippi Test Operations area.

Supervisor president, R. G. Hubbard Jr., of Waveland termed the meeting in Bay St. Louis "very satisfactory" and said representatives of the Corps of Engineers are to meet with the board again on Feb. 17.

At that time, Hubbard said the board is to make a firm proposal on the price it will ask for both hard-surfaced and dirt or gravel roads in the test site and buffer zones of MTO.

"We are trying to dictate a lump sum," he said, "based on state aid costs during the last ten years."

Hubbard said the county is offering to accept the test site and buffer zones in the MTO area and gravel roads elsewhere in the county where conditions developed by the state road test center have resulted.

There are 42 miles of hard-surfaced roads in the MTO area and engineers are to measure the number of miles of county dirt and gravel roads before the Feb. 17 meeting.

The county board has also received a letter from the state road test center in the MTO area, which said, although valuable to the Bay St. Louis district, the area is increasing as the county grows.

Provisions Of Tax Cut Bill

WASHINGTON - Here are the major provisions of the $11.6 billion tax cut bill passed by the Senate Friday.

Individual Rates - The present schedule of 20 to 91 per cent would be reduced to 14 to 70 per cent, with two-thirds of the cut effective in 1964 retroactive to Jan. 1, one-third in 1965. The Senate and House bills are identical.

Withholding from Salaries and Wages - The Senate bill would cut rates from the present 18 per cent to 14 per cent one week after the measure is signed. The House bill would cut it to 15 per cent this year, 14 per cent starting in 1965.

Corporate Rates - The present 52 per cent tax - 30 per cent normal, 22 per cent surtax - cut to 50 per cent this year retroactive to Jan. 1, 48 per cent starting in 1965. Normal and surtax rates would be reversed so they would wind up 22 per cent normal and 26 per cent surtax next year to give a greater break to small firms. The Senate and House bills are identical.

Capital Gains - The House bill would cut rates on stock or other assets held more than two years so any gain would be taxed at 40 per cent of normal levy with a 21 per cent ceiling and would retain present rate of 50 per cent of regular tax with a 25 per cent ceiling for those held six months to two years. The Senate bill would continue present rates unchanged.

Remitted Deductions - The House bill would deny deductions, now permitted, for state gasoline taxes, auto tags, drivers' licenses, liquor taxes, tobacco taxes and certain excise taxes including those on admissions and hotel rooms. The Senate bill would continue deductions on gasoline taxes, auto tags, and drivers' licenses.

Stock Dividend Credit Income - Both bills would repeal the 4 per cent credit on stock dividend income which may now be subtracted from taxes due. They also would double the present exclusion of such income from taxable income. The new allowances would be $100 for an individual, $200 for a married couple.

Minimum Standard Deduction - This feature, the same in both bills, would allow a flat deduction of $300 for each taxpayer plus $100 for each exemption after his own. It could be used as an alternative to the present deduction of 10 per cent of gross income up to a $1,000 maximum.

Discontinuance Of Commuters May Hurt

NEW ORLEANS - A Mississippi official warned an Interstate Commerce Commission hearing here this week that discontinuance of two commuter trains to the Mississippi Gulf Coast could retard development of the area.

Marcus Love of the Mississippi Agricultural and Industrial Board, said "the discontinuance will not be conducive to the industrial and economic development we feel will certainly take place in this area."

The hearings adjourned shortly after Love testified.

ICC examiner William J. Kane of Washington, said he will try to render his decision two months after briefs are filed on March 9.

Kane heard 2½ days of arguments on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad's proposal to drop the two commuter trains because of declining revenue.

CITES STATISTICS
In other testimony, W. W. Raush, of Bay St. Louis, Miss., cited statistics pointing out the railroad in 1963 paid $11.59 per share on common stock, the highest dividend on this country's 45 major railroads.

A. L. Abernathy, representing the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, said passenger train 33 scheduled to arrive in New Orleans at 8:50 a. m. daily from the east, consistently runs late.

He said the train suggested by railroad officials as a substitute for the morning commuter trains runs "all the way from 30 minutes to four hours late consistently."

Kane told both parties the transcript of the hearings would be in their hands by Feb. 21 and directed them to file briefs by March 9.

A number of commuters on the line asked the ICC Thursday to deny the L&N request, saying they needed the service.

Mayor Victor Schiro of New Orleans testified traffic conditions between central New Orleans and the Saturn space plant at Michoud on the eastern outskirts of the city would be further congested unless trains stops are made at the plant. The trains pass the NASA plant but do not stop there.

Mayor John A. Scaffie of Bay St. Louis, said more than 25 Michoud employees live in his town and need the service.

Mayor Garfield Ladner of Waveland said termination of the train would force residents of his town to move to New Orleans.

Robert W. Reed of Waveland, an engineer at the Michoud plant,

ANTI-COMMUNIST AMENDMENT PUT CIVIL RIGHTS SPOTTERS ON THE SPOT

WASHINGTON, D. C. (Special). Disgusted at the pressure on House members, directed by galley "spotters," to reject out of hand any change proposed to the civil rights bill, Congressman Wm. Colmer, (D-Miss.) dropped an anti-communist amendment into the hopper on the final day of debate and dared the membership to vote against it.

Chairman Emanuel Celler (D-N.Y.) of the House Judiciary Committee, floor leader for the bill, assented to accept the amendment. He was supported by Representative James Roosevelt (D-Calif.). "If we oppose this amendment it would put you in company with Communists and pro-Communists. I do not think any member should be put in that light."

That was the exact intent of Colmer's amendment - if a proponent of the bill persisted in voting against all changes. The amendment provided that to re-employment to a Communist should not be deemed "unlawful practice" under the FEPC titles of the bill.

Out of 140 amendments offered on the sweeping 10-part proposal, the sweeping 10-part proposal was adopted and of these only two or three made changes of substance. The rest were moved down by a coalition of Northern Democrats and Republicans whipped into line by the House leadership and kept there by spotters in the gallery representing various civil rights groups.

"While everybody agreed that debate was dignified and to the point," Colmer said, "in all my 30 years here I have never seen such pressure, arm twisting and attempts at blackmail. If the Liberals were not on the Floor, the spotters got them there. If one voted 'wrong,' he was promptly called off the Floor and lectured. I decided to see if even an anti-Communist amendment would be rejected, but the floor managers for the bill ducked such a test."

approximately 53,850 square feet of floor space, having exterior walls of precast concrete panels to correspond with other buildings at MTO. It will house the technical systems to support test firing activities.

The facilities of the laboratory will be utilized to maintain, service, and calibrate all electronic and instrumentation equipment; perform functional tests and analyses in analytical chemistry, metallurgy, and hardness of materials; maintain and service television, motion picture, and still cameras; and process still and motion picture film.

The construction contract is expected to approximate $2,000,000.

NEW TAX GUIDE ON NEW WITHHOLDING TAX TABLES

Mr. J. G. Martin, District Director, Internal Revenue Service, said today that 4 1/2 million copies of the new income tax withholding tables based on the 14 per cent rate agreed upon by Congress will be mailed by the end of the week to employers throughout the country.

The 32-page booklet entitled "Employers Tax Guide" is expected to be in employers' hands by Saturday or Monday well in advance of the effective date of the lowered 14 per cent withholding rate on wages and salaries. The effective date expected to be seven days after President Johnson signs the tax cut bill is estimated to be about March 1.

Printing of the tax guide began shortly after the 14 per cent withholding rate was approved by Senate and House conferees on Monday, February 10 and distribution of the guides in bulk was begun to Internal Revenue Regional Service Centers where they are being addressed and mailed to employers.

This early distribution of the new tax tables was made possible by the high-volume processing techniques of the Internal Revenue Service. The distribution is about five days faster than would have been possible a few years ago. This speed-up was achieved because of the faster distribution of the material to the Service Centers the high-speed labeling equipment.

The tax guides are being mailed to employers from Regional Service Centers in Ogden, Utah; Kansas City, Missouri; Atlanta, Georgia; Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; and Lawrence, Massachusetts. They will be sent first class mail.

Mr. Martin said employers should watch for announcements of the effective date of the new withholding rates in the papers and on radio and television. The new rate cannot be used until an effective date is announced.

ELECTRIC SAFETY

Electricity can, if properly treated, be a wonderful servant. But handled carelessly it can be an enemy and do a lot of harm.

First make sure that all wiring, insulation, plugs, etc., are in good condition. This is a must.

Here are some rules to help play it safe with electricity: Know where the main switch is and keep it clear in case of emergency. Be sure to pull the main switch before making repairs. Be sure to use the right size fuse for the circuit.

Do not touch a bare wire or any metal that is in contact with a bare wire. Do not touch electrical fixtures, switches and appliances when you are wet.

Pull out attachment plugs by holding the plug instead of the cord. When you are through using any appliance or electrical tool, unplug it or turn off the electricity.

Always buy and use equipment that has been UL approved and labeled. Be sure to ground the frame of 240-volt electric motors. On portable 120 volt electrical tools use three-wire cords. Always stand on a dry surface when using electrical tools. Keep children away from electrical cords and outlets. Check the circuit load if an attachment plug feels warm.

DAIRY MANAGEMENT

Research has proved that you lose from 50 cents to $1 a day profit for every day past 90 days that a dairy cow goes without being rebred.

Try to get the dairy cow rebred between 60 and 90 days after calving. Closer observation for detecting heat periods and breeding between the middle and the end

GAINESVILLE, MISS. - A year ago, the only visible evidence of NASA's rocket testing facility in Hancock County, Miss., was a couple of billboard type highway signs, a launching pad for weather balloons and a giant horn which belled out rocket noises from a tape recorder.

The handful of workers at the site called each other by their first names.

Since then, NASA's Mississippi Test Operations - a division of the Marshall Space Flight Center in Huntsville, Ala., has changed the peaceful atmosphere of Hancock County.

This construction project, the largest ever to hit the state of Mississippi, is rolling along at a fast pace readying facilities to test rocket stages which will someday launch Americans to the moon.

Since the first tree was felled last May, 10 construction contracts totaling $1,498,337 have been completed. This includes a boat harbor and dock cut right out of a thick cypress swamp.

At the present time, more than $40 million worth of construction is underway including work on the first test stand. Almost $25 million more in construction contracts will be awarded in the near future. Procurement contracts totaling $12,481,050 have been awarded by MTO.

Personnel at the site no longer can talk on first name basis. About 200 persons are employed at MTO by NASA, General Electric, support contractor; the Army Engineers, in charge of land acquisition and construction; and others.

About 375 construction workers are at MTO. When work hits its peak this summer, about 3,000 construction workers are expected to be at the site.

MTO employment will peak with some 2,500 permanent persons working at the site. NASA hopes to begin testing rocket stages at the site in late 1965.

There will be three test stands at MTO, two to fire the second stage of the Saturn V and a huge 400-foot tall stand to test the booster of the Moon Rocket.

Supporting facilities now under construction include a laboratory and engineering complex, several one-half mile of canals, a lock and bascule bridge, boat harbor and dock, and an industrial complex.

of the heat period will go a long way toward solving this problem.

Here are some tips that might also help. Never try to breed a cow until her calf is at least 50 to 60 days old. Keep a record of all heat periods. Report to your artificial breeding technician as soon as you notice a cow in heat. After breeding, confine the cow several hours. Have the veterinarian check abnormal or problem cows. Feed a balanced ration to aid in higher conception rate. Keep a close check

PASTURE FERTILIZATION

Broadcasting fertilizer on permanent pastures, silage and hay crops will save time and labor. Often broadcasting fertilizer gets the job done when it could not have been done by using small spreaders.

Don't forget lime when planning the fertilizer program. It is necessary for good legume growth and also makes other fertilizers more readily available to plants.

HOME GARDENING

The time is here to get ready for a big gardening year in 1964. The number one job now is to prepare some rows for planting.

Some vegetables to plant this month include leaf and head lettuce, onions, Irish potatoes, spinach, carrots, turnips, cabbage, mustard, English peas, radish and tendergreens.

Get your hotbed and seed boxes ready for planting. Then plan on your seed needs. One ounce of seed will produce around this number of plants. Lettuce 3000, tomato 1500-2000, eggplant 1500, pepper 1500.

They say that 450 million bonds are now held throughout the country, them, of course, are 15 to 100 old, or more. The bonds are not the people. With the outstanding, it is only to expect that a great many of the bonds carry the names of who are no longer living.

That's the purpose of this up here. If there are in your family carrying the names of persons who have died, the bonds were bought, want to bring them up to substituting the name of a family member. The bonds do this for you, without One thing to remember, have to provide the Treasury a death certificate for the whose name is being removed from the bond. That's because regulations require the name of a co-owner or beneficiary name is being dropped.

There's no requirement to get this bond re-issued, it's just a service the provides the bond owner

Colonel D. A. Raymond, U. S. Army District Engineer at Mobile, Alabama, announced today the award of a $447,528 contract to the Sabine Dredging & Construction Company, Inc., of Port Arthur, Texas, for dredging in the East Pearl River to provide a channel 13 feet deep and 150 feet wide from the Gulf Intracoastal Waterway at the Rigolets to the NASA Mississippi Test Operations in south Mississippi.

The Texas firm will deepen, widen and straighten the river channel where required from about a mile south of the former site of Gainesville, Mississippi, down the East Pearl River for about 17 miles, through Little Lake Pass, Little Lake, and East Pass, to the Rigolets, and dredge a canal about 6 miles long from the harbor area in the southwest corner of the test site to the lock.

Work is expected to begin shortly and to be completed in October 1964.

The Corps of Engineers sent advance notices soliciting bids on this job to 1098 contractors and material suppliers, furnished plans and specifications on request to 32 prime contractors and 13 subcontractors and material suppliers, and received 5 bids from prime contractors. This contract was set aside for award to a small business firm.

Colonel D. A. Raymond, U. S. Army District Engineer at Mobile, Alabama, announced today the award of a $77,772 contract to the Charles Well Supply Company of Memphis, Tennessee, for the construction of two water wells at the NASA Mississippi Test Operations in Hancock County, Mississippi.

The firm will construct two wells, approximately 1500 feet deep to provide potable water for domestic consumption and fire protection in the test stand and support facilities areas.

Work is expected to begin shortly and to be completed in June 1964.

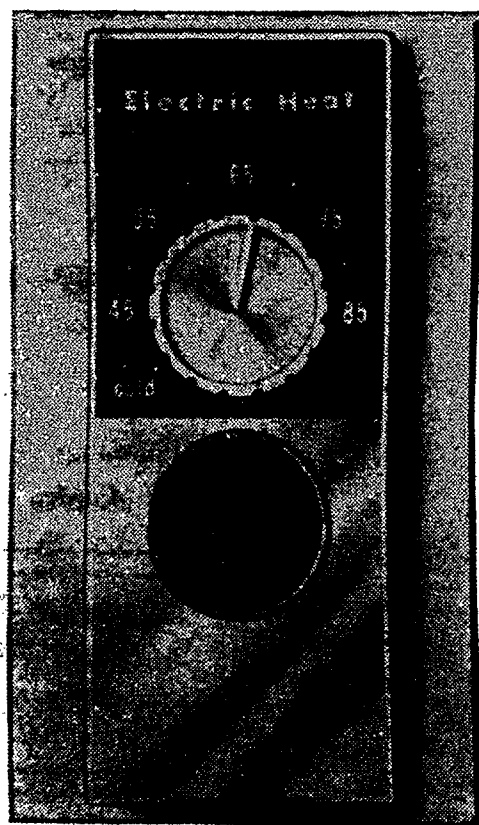

The Corps sent advance notices soliciting bids on this job to 600 contractors and material suppliers, furnished plans and specifications on request to 6 prime contractors and 3 subcontractors and material suppliers, and received 3 bids. This contract was set aside for award to a small business firm.

Army Engineers will open bids on March 12 in Mobile, Alabama, for the construction of an electronics, instrumentation and materials laboratory at the NASA Mississippi Test Operations in Hancock County, Mississippi.

The U. S. Army Corps of Engineers has responsibility for engineering, design and construction at the huge new test facility, which will be used by the Marshall Space Flight Center for captive test firing of large rocket engines and boosters for the Apollo manned lunar landing program.

DIAL THE WEATHER YOU WANT

Warm or cool or in between. With modern electric home heating, you simply dial the temperature you want and let clean, silent electricity do the rest. With electric resistance heating, you can have a thermostat in every room. Pinpoint heat control is maintained at just the temperature you desire. With the miracle weather machine called the heat pump, you set the dial once at the temperature that suits you best and forget it. The heat pump both heats and cools automatically. And you can be assured that the temperature will remain within a degree and a half of thermostat setting—providing springtime freshness inside whether it's sunshine or snow outside. There are many other advantages of electric heating: its cleanliness; its quietness; its ease of maintenance. And the cost of operating an electric heating system is competitive with systems of comparable quality. Mississippi Power Company has a staff of heating experts who would be happy to answer any questions about flameless electric heating and explain how the installation of permanent home heating may qualify you for big savings under the Company's Wiring Plan.
